

A VEAST OF FOLK

14th & 15th SEPTEMBER 2018

Burton Bradstock's Veast of Folk returns on Friday 14th September 2018 with 'SONGS OF THE SEA AND TALES FROM THE STORY BOAT'. We are very pleased to be presenting an evening of story and song together with David Powell, Gail McGarva and The Story Boat Project. The Story Boat is coming to Burton Bradstock School on Wednesday 12th Sept. Gail will be running creative workshops with the children and then on Friday the Story Boat will 'heave to' just inside the Rectory garden gates. The Village Hall doors will open at 7pm and there will be a chance for everyone to view the Story Boat and chat to Gail before her presentation starts at 7.30pm. The bar will also open at 7pm and there will be a display of some of the children's project work. After supper David Powell and Chris Deacon will entertain us with Songs of the Sea with opportunities for everyone to join in! Burton Bradstock Village Hall 7pm onwards, music, stories, displays, food, bar and raffle, profits for the RNLI. Tickets from BB Post Office or phone 897421 or email burtonfolktickets@gmail.com Adults £8 children £5 to include supper.

Sat 15th September 'MUSIC IN THE GARDEN' our 5th year at The Three Horseshoes Pub and Kitchen. Thanks go to Hannah and Jaap for hosting this event. 12noon-6pm An afternoon of great live music with local musicians all playing for free including Mor or Less, Elfentale, The Allen Keys, HiDDen, Sacrificial Sam and lots more. Veast Menu, drink, raffle and donations. Please come along and support this charity event in support of the RNLI.