

A VEAST OF FOLK RAISES FUNDS FOR RNLI

Burton Bradstock's 'A Veast of Folk' on Saturday Sept 20th has revived an old tradition of music, song and dance and raised in excess of £600 for the RNLI. The folk day held at the Three Horseshoes Pub was a great success with bands playing to a packed audience in the pub garden followed by a Ceilidh and supper in the village hall. On Sunday an impromptu music session in the Anchor Pub brought in an extra donation to swell the funds. Organisers made the presentation to Bridport RNLI at Haddon House last Monday and were thanked for their splendid donation.

Thanks go to local musicians: Bride Valley Band, Burton Bradstock School, Shiraz, Wyld Morris, Acoustic Rooster, KnH, and Mor or Less, to visiting musicians Delta 88 from Exeter making their debut appearance, and The High Street Band from Stony Stratford, all giving their time for free and making the Veast such an enjoyable event.

Delta 88 play to a packed crowd in the Three Horseshoes Garden