

Art Exhibition Burton Bradstock 14th-21st August, 2010

For the past five years, the well-established Burton Bradstock Music Festival has been enhanced by an exciting exhibition of paintings, textiles, ceramics, craft work and greetings cards; works by artists from throughout the West Country.

This exhibition was first staged in 2005 when Margaret Harding was invited to arrange an exhibition of paintings to coincide with the Music Festival. The first year Margaret invited a few of her artistic friends to hang their paintings; these were admired and enjoyed by the concert goers, brightening up the Village Hall during the interval drinks.

Since it's conception, and now in it's sixth year, this event has grown both in size and quality. It has become a unique exhibition, showing over 150 original works by more than 60 artists; both amateur and professional. This exhibition, held in the Burton Bradstock Village Hall, is open to the public for the whole week and is well worth a visit.

Open each day from 14th to 21st August between 10am and 4pm, closing at 12 noon on Saturday 21st August.

All the exhibits are for sale and entrance is free.
