I DID NOT SEE my middle grandchild for a week, and while I was not there he learned free standing. He had almost done it while he was with us, and then chose very selfishly, I think, to edge towards his first step without my being there to give permission, and in such a way that I was obliged to learn of his accomplishment over the telephone. My Niece has given birth to Klara in Canada which is a great delight of course. It truly is, I have seen a photo of the radiant Mother and the little baby wrapped in a papoose. But now, as Great Uncle I discover that I have become known as Gruncle. I cannot claim to have any great objection, to the point at which I would ask you, dear Reader, to be careful of the knowledge I impart to you in saying that I am secretly quite proud of the title, but it would have been nice to have been asked.

Times move on without us, no matter how grumpy we choose to be about them. We all of us change all the time, however much we believe ourselves to be the same in the interests of becoming indispensable. Jean and I will be back from holiday by the time this is read, and it would be a sad thing if we were not changed at all by what we had seen of the places we had been. We will be different, and so will everyone else in the time we have been away; learning to walk and being born in all sorts of ways.

The hymn goes on about change and decay in doleful notes as if to say how awful it is. But autumn is the time of decay; it is what it does best. This year let's let it, smell it, grow mushrooms: change. If it makes you happy, be grumpy, but please be prepared for the possibility of changing that too.

Bob Thorn.

FROM THE REGISTERS

FUNERALS

The village was in shock to hear of the sudden death of MARGARET ROSE HOLMES, after a short and unforeseen illness. There was deep sympathy for Tom, her husband and their two grown sons, Anthony and Paul.

On Monday 16th July, a ceremony was held at Weymouth crematorium at which Anthony gave an address. In the service of thanksgiving for Margaret's life, in the afternoon at St Mary's Church Burton Bradstock, Tom spoke of Margaret before a Church full of friends, family and people from the village, all deeply effected by his words. We gave thanks for her strong faith and deep friendship. And we sang, as she loved to sing, among others, "Be still, my soul," and ending with a rousing "Shine, Jesus shine," her favourite of all.

"Send forth your word, Lord, and let there be light."

On Wednesday 18th July, the village celebrated in mourning and thanksgiving the life of REAR ADMIRAL GWYNEDD IDRIS PRITCHARD C.B.

A service at Weymouth in the morning was followed by one of celebration of his memory in the afternoon at St Mary's, Burton Bradstock. At both, standards from ships, afloat and ashore, where he had served were present to honour him. His Rear Admiral's flag hung at half mast on the Church tower.

Locally he was known, respected and loved as one closely involved in the village, and beyond over a wide area. Among us he was, among so many other things, president of the Bride Valley branch of the Royal British Legion. He was also a dear brother in Christ to members of St Mary's congregation.

Tess, his beloved wife, led the mourning. Michael Pritchard, gave a tribute in memory of his Father, and another was given by Captain Mike Southgate C.B.E.

A wide representation from the Royal Navy joined family, friends and many from the village to remember him, memorably at the end of the service in the singing of "For those in peril on the sea."

"Thus evermore shall rise to thee glad hymns of praise from land and sea. "

On Thursday 19th July the ashes of GILLIAN ELIZABETH LEGGE and those of JOHN WILLIAMS were laid to rest in the cemetery at Burton Bradstock, in the grave of Gill's parents. They had lived for some time high up on the coast road, beyond Othona, above the whole breadth and beauty of Lyme bay.

It was a simple and loving service, attended by Gill's sisters, Mary and Alice. We remembered them fondly and well in the sunshine, and prayed God's everlasting blessing upon them.

St Martin's Church, Shipton Gorge was full to overflowing on Friday 27th July for the funeral of WILLIAM JOHN PARSONS. The family itself is a large, extended one, and they came to remember John and to support Jill in her grief. She was with her children, Chris, Gary, Alan, Claire and Kelly. Many from the village and neighbourhood also came to pay their respects to a man who had grown up in the area, and had worked on some of the local farms in former years. He took to a bread round and then a milk round before settling to grow things in the garden. He was a notable darts player.

Many in the Church wore his favourite colour of red in memory, brightening the occasion in a way he would have loved to see. We laid him to rest in the Churchyard, above the fields that once he ploughed as a young man, the echoes of the hymn "we plough the fields and scatter." in our ears.

"Then thank the Lord, O thank the Lord for all his love."

BAPTISMS

On Monday 16th July, ZAHARA GREENER was baptized in St Peter's Church Long Bredy. The service was a quiet, family celebration.

Zahara's parents, James and Ting were over from China, and took the opportunity to Baptise their daughter in the family Church. We held the service in half darkness by the light of a single candle; in part so that the light of Christ overcoming darkness could be a clear sign, and in part in solidarity with those the family knew in China whose Christian faith has to stay hidden. It was a precious and moving service, followed by a jolly tea back at the house.

WEDDINGS

BLAKE and ALEXA HARDING, who were married in Hong Kong some time before, came to the Church of St Mary, Burton Bradstock to have their marriage blessed. It was an opportunity for friends and family who had not been able to get to the wedding itself to share in the prayers and celebrations in this country. The opportunity was not wasted. Readings were given by Bee Hughes and Peter Bushell, and the Revd Margaret Preuss-Higham, a family friend, led the prayers. The newly married couple looked splendidly happy throughout the service, and afterwards at the reception at Norburton Hall.

VILLAGE CORRESPONDENT VACANCY.

Ian Ibbotson has now taken over as Advertising Manager for the BVN and is no longer Burton Bradstock Village Correspondent.

As yet, no one has come forward as a replacement.

Are there any volunteers out there, please?

If interested, please speak to Ian, or to the editor, to find out what is involved.

FLOOD AT GREENWICH COTTAGE

Ken and Noreen would like to thank each and every one of you from the bottom of our hearts for all the great help, kindness and generosity shown to us after the terrible flooding of our home. What would we have done without you all?

Hopefully, it will not be too long before we are back home when you will all be most welcome to call in and have a cuppa with us.

With our love, Noreen and Ken.

TEAM BB WINS GOLD!

Well, if Fetes were an Olympic event I feel sure that Burton Bradstock's Church Fete would be awarded a Gold medal or at least have a podium finish to celebrate!

The Fete's theme 'Going for Gold' was part of Burton Bradstock's Olympic Games celebrations. Olympic Gold was reflected in the wonderful flower displays in the church plus the glowing faces of youngsters experiencing the fun challenges of many games - which do not need a computer screen! Silver was evident in the linings of the morning clouds that, thankfully, parted to provide clear blue skies during the Fete. Bronze was perhaps supplied in the emerging suntans of visitors (or was that rust from the recent rains?).

A fencing display was chosen to represent the Olympic Events, and the fact that we have our very own fencing Olympian living in the village (Shirley Parker). And in honour of the fastest man on the planet we had our very own Usain Bolt (Snail No 4) taking part in the Snail 100 cm races.

This year's Burton Bradstock Church Fete was a real "Team BB" effort with 80+ villagers and their friends pulling together to create a wonderful event. The magnificent sum of around £5000 was raised towards St Mary's Church Fabric Fund. Just as importantly the Fete provided great fun and entertainment for all our 700+ paying visitors, plus hundreds of free entry children.

Thanks must be given to all the hard work of those that helped set up, run stalls and packed things away, but especially those visitors who spent so generously in difficult economic times.

NOTE: Next Year's Church Fete is on Thursday 1st August 2013

Jim Rogers – 897464, Church Fete Co-ordinator

BURTON BRADSTOCK BRIDGE GROUP

After our summer break we commence on Tuesday 4th September at 1.45pm in Burton Bradstock Village Hall.

We are considering starting a Beginners/Improvers group on a Tuesday to be run separately from the existing group. You will need to know how to play bridge - maybe have had lessons and want to continue to play or perhaps to gain a little more confidence having not played recently.

If interested please telephone 898117.

THE BURTON BRADSTOCK VILLAGE SOCIETY

The first meeting of the 2012 -13 year will be on Friday 21 September 2012 at 7.30pm in the Village Hall when Air Commodore Phil Wilkinson will speak on "A Military Diplomat in Yetsin's Russia"

Phil Wilkinson, spent 40 years in the Royal Air Force involving thousands of hours in the air. His time on the ground was equally challenging, including exchange appointments with both the French and United States Air Forces, and assignment as Commander of the RAF station in Berlin at the time of the Fall of the Wall. His final period of duty was based in Moscow, as Defence and Air Attaché, during the turbulence of Russia's emergence from the Soviet era, and it is on this period of his career that he focusses for our talk. Friends who have heard this talk say if at all possible it is not to be missed - we are very grateful to him for travelling to Dorset to be with us.

John Grantham, Phil Wilkinson

"RHUBARB, RHUBARB, RHUBARB!"

It was Ray West, returning to Burton on Bastille Day to visit the Burton Bradstock Village Society Flower and Produce Show, who provided my title. Not surprisingly, the rhubarb entries were impressive, after all the rain we have had. Yet despite the lack of sunshine, there was little to suggest that entries had suffered. The Village Hall was packed, as ever, with all those who had flocked to see the glorious colours and shapes of yet another successful show. Here is just a flavour for those who were unable to be there.

Hedgerow Plants were a real joy as were the Red, White and Blue category – what a delightfully witty touch to pop a miniature bather in the arrangement and, how it brought a smile to all those who saw it! A magnificent knitted sculpture of a clown lit up one corner, complete with even drips of paint. How can you knit a paint drop? Well, you can!

Passing a tempting bentwood chair, I found myself squeezing the handsome mint exhibits and paid dearly for them at the end of show auction: yummy! Three grand onions sat in their tray, like a baleful pawnbroker overseeing the vegetable table, while the exhibits of Sloe Gin invoked the image of a dressing table in a Parisian boudoir – very Colette.

The photographs were fun, particularly one of two rather squiffy-looking gentlemen (Grantham and Lumley), their red faces and green party hats reminiscent of a set of traffic lights – go on the green; stop on the red. The judge had commented on Grantham’s eyes being shut: of course they were, he was almost asleep! Another, wedding picture, was beautifully enhanced by some of the confetti that had no doubt been in evidence at the time; a very nice touch!

This was Sandy Adderley’s last Show and the President, Nancy Bushell, rightly paid tribute to the splendid shows we have enjoyed over recent years; the Show is the last in the Society’s calendar and it is always a splendid end to the year.

SHIPTON GORGE VILLAGE SOCIETY

VILLAGE SHOW

SGVS apologises for the rearrangement of the date for this show. Due to the adverse weather over previous months/weeks, we received comments from Villagers that the original planned date of Saturday 28th July was appearing premature due to the poor quality of planned exhibits. Therefore the rearranged date of 1st SEPTEMBER was agreed. The categories for exhibits and details of entry which appeared in the July edition of the BVN remain unchanged.

VILLAGE WALK

Once again, due to the rearranged date of 1st September for the Show, we have had to reschedule the Village Walk for Saturday 15th SEPTEMBER. Vicky Thomas will lead the Walk on the day, which starts from THE NEW INN car park at 10.30am.

RACE NIGHT

Unfortunately, due to organisational problems, the proposal for a Race Night has now been put back until late November.

TV THEME NIGHT

Saturday 6th October in the Village Hall

This will be based on 'ARE YOU BEING SERVED' the successful BBC programme of the 70s and 80s situated in the Grace Brothers Departmental Store. The format for the night will follow previous years where 'Dad's Army' and 'Allo Allo' were the themes. Further details of the food for the night etc. will be published in the October BVN and on Village notice boards nearer the date.

SGVS DIAMOND JUBILEE COMMEMORATION

Could we ask all Parishioners coming to the Village Show on 1st September to bring their completed Diamond Jubilee Commemoration 'Flier' with them which they received in the August BVN. There will be copies of the Flier available at the show if you have mislaid the original. However, we are keen to have everyone's viewpoint on the SGVS proposal.

As previously reported in the July BVN and in anticipation of a successful outcome, there will be a grand raffle for which the 1st prize will be a choice from Philippa Young's 2 paintings of Shipton Gorge. It is a very generous donation and we will also be making 25 'limited edition' prints of one of the paintings ( personally signed by Philippa ) for sale on the day.

It is unlikely that even the youngest Member of SGVS will see a Diamond Jubilee in their lifetime and therefore it is a very special commemoration to have in the Village.

There will be a dedicated table with a display of possible ideas for this commemoration at the Village Show and the opportunity to discuss the idea with the SGVS Committee. However, the project is in your hands.

DORSET BEST KEPT VILLAGE COMPETITION

By the time the October Edition of BVN is published we will know the results of the Dorset Best Village Competition. The details will be announced on Friday 21st September at Corfe Mullen Village Hall. Phone results will be relayed to THE NEW INN on the evening by the Shipton Gorge representatives who will attend the prize giving. We will also post the results on the Village Website and on Posters around the Village. Keep your fingers crossed !

A note for your diary that summer(?) is over and the first Artsreach production of the year for Shipton Gorge will be on Wednesday 17th October at 7.30 pm at the village hall.

CAROLINE HORTON (winner of 2010 The Stage award for Best Solo Performer) will present

'YOU'RE NOT LIKE THE OTHER GIRLS,

CHRISSEY', taking us back to a liberated Paris in 1945.

Christiane, an eccentric and acutely myopic Parisian, waits at Gare Du Nord for a ticket to England to be reunited with her fiance. While she waits, this gloriously irrepressible mademoiselle recounts the story of her love affair with Cyril, a tongue-tied English teacher from Staffordshire. From a chance encounter at Cheadle tennis club, their story takes us on a cosmopolitan 1930s Paris, before war interrupts their unlikely romance. A fond, comical and ultimately poignant portrait of one woman's experience of love and war. Particularly suitable for anyone over the age of 12 studying WW2 or anyone with memories of this time, but a heartfelt show which will I am sure will be enjoyed by all.

The show will be seated in traditional theatre style and tickets priced at £8 are available from Doris Benselin on 01308 897562. Do please come and support our Artsreach shows if possible to ensure we keep this wonderful facility in our village hall.

VILLAGE HALL 100 CLUB

£20	No 94	Sally Parker
£10	No 50	Tye Love
£ 5	No77	Dawn Symes

Please note that the new Draw Season starts on 1st October and contributions will be collected during September on behalf of SGVHT.

THANK YOU! to all concerned at Longlands Farm (especially Tom and Kelly Foot and Neil and Sally Grigg) for organising the superb FARM WALK and barbecue at the end of July, and to Nick Haines and the others who operated the mobile milking system that day, so that we could see (and have it explained as well) how it all works. It was good to see that several of our neighbours also showed an interest, and it was a thoroughly worthwhile event – thanks to all.

There will be a CAR TREASURE HUNT organised by the Social Club on Saturday 8th September, starting at the Village Hall at 5.30 p.m. (and no doubt ending there as well). But all further details will appear as a separate flier inside the Littlebredy copies of this magazine.

The Rector's plans to mark MICHAELMAS with a 2-day pilgrimage on foot across the Deanery from our St. Michael and All Angels here, to St. Michael's Church in Lyme Regis on the 28th-29th September were set out fully in the August (and this) issue of the magazine. Let us hope this enterprising initiative will be well supported, and no doubt copies of the plans can be obtained from the Rectory office if anyone would like to catch up on them.

Advance notice that the HARVEST THANKSGIVING Service here will be in Church at 5.00 p.m. on Sunday 14th October (replacing the morning service that day), followed by the traditional Harvest Supper in the Hall. Further plans (and no doubt requests for bring & share contributions) will be circulated in the meanwhile.

BOOK CLUB

"The Long Song" by Andrea Levy was very much enjoyed by most members, but not all. The tale of how the slaves in Jamaica lived on the sugar cane plantation in the story was grim - how they were treated, ways in which they survived, but also what happened when freedom came. Chaos resulted and it seemed no transitional plans were thought of - so both freed slaves and previous plantation owners suffered in different ways, but there were some triumphs over adversity, and even humour along the way amazingly.

A recommended read - people may have heard of or read her previous novel called "Small Island" - also excellent (thanks Liz) - this one "The Long Song" caused much discussion and opinions expressed i.e. about the main characters etc.

Our next book is called " Making it Up" by Penelope Lively.

P.S. Welcome to new members Jackie and Michelle.

WHIST DRIVE

A Whist Drive will be held at the Puncknowle, Swyre and West Bexington Village Hall on 18th September at 7.30pm sharp!

Everyone is welcome. Please contact Jenny Parr on 897351 for further details.

PUNCKNOWLE, SWYRE & W. BEXINGTON LUNCH CLUB

Members will need an extra £1 at the September lunch in order to renew their membership of the club for the new year beginning next month. If anyone would like to help, please contact me on 897622.

Members who have not already ordered their meal for 18th September or who wish to cancel a meal should also contact 897622. Ken

AFTERNOON TEA

Do take the opportunity to call into the village hall in Puncknowle between 3.45 and 5.00pm for a cup of tea (or coffee or squash), cake, sandwiches and biscuits as available. Most importantly come for a chat with whoever else has turned up.

So far we have served Lunch Club members looking for an extra opportunity to meet up, Mums and children on their way back from school and those from further afield who cycled over (uphill mostly) for refreshment before cycling home (downhill!)

If you would like a lift to get to the teas do ring us and we will see what we can arrange. Sue Brown 897953

ST MARY'S, PUNCKNOWLE

PUNCKNOWLE GARDEN FETE

A huge thank you to all who helped to make our fete such a success, whether you helped with the organisation, collected for a stall or served behind one. We were especially grateful to those who so generously donated to provide items for sale.

The sun stayed out, fun was had by all and we made a magnificent sum of £4,750.

Thank you to Sarah and Jim Wilde for the use of the beautiful gardens in the Manor.

HARVEST FESTIVAL

You are invited to join us at this celebration service of thanksgiving. On Sunday September 23rd at 11.00am. We have much to be thankful for.

This will be followed by a 'BRING AND SHARE'

HARVEST LUNCH in the Hall in Puncknowle at 12.15pm.

Bring a plate of food, hot or cold, sweet or savoury to share with others. Do come along even if you don't make it to the church service. This is an invitation to all who live in the Village and beyond.

Contact Sue Brown 897953 or Elizabeth Slater 897751 for further details.

VALLEY NOTES

A PILGRIMAGE IS BEING PLANNED.

This is for hardy walkers, please to note. It is likely to be hard work. For those not given to striding, you will still be able to derive much enjoyment when the time comes, from the thought of those who take part, struggling through the wild and weather – in other words, please pray for us.

At one coastal end of Lyme Bay Deanery we have Littlebredy and the Church of St Michael and all angels. At the Western end of the Deanery there is St Michael the archangel, Lyme Regis. The task is to bind the two in prayer, and some suffering, by walking the distance between them. We plan to take two days. The first will be from Littlebredy to West Bay, where we will be begging some floor space for sleeping bags for the night in St John's Church. The next day will be hard work, over Golden cap and on through Charmouth to Lyme Regis. There will be stops for prayers on the way in the chapel in the woods at Ashley Chase, and at St Gabriel's chapel at the foot of Golden cap to name two. There is the holy well near Morcombelake if we have the strength for the slope.

The days we have chosen to walk are Friday 28th of September and then Saturday 29th, which is the feast day of St Michael and all angels; known as Michelmas. It really works rather well this year with the following Sunday 30th being a fifth Sunday in the month, when many of our benefices step out of a routine service pattern; a resting day of rest.

More details of this will follow. Times are of necessity restricted mainly to start times on both days. Transport will be impossible to plan over the whole Deanery, and the encouragement will be for people to co-ordinate their own local arrangements. Food will be a light breakfast at Littlebredy, a pause at the Hive café while passing, and fish and chips in the evening at West Bay. Next morning, early foraging, lunch on the hoof in Charmouth and so on to Lyme. We will need either to carry sleeping bags or to arrange for a friend to sherpa them in a car. We will need to carry water. Dogs are welcome to join us for holy walkies.

Just to get an idea of numbers I would appreciate it if those venturing would be kind enough to let me know. A message can be left on 01308 898799 or with Liz Slater at admin@jeanandbob.demon.co.uk. Bob Thorn. Rural Dean

Our Fish & Chip Supper and Games evening in July was enjoyed by nearly fifty participants. The Shuvh'penny contest was won by MRS. GLADYS WILKINS after a keenly fought contest by sixteen competitors; the Chairman, John Perry, presented a cup to the winner.

At the QUARTERLY BRANCH COMMITTEE MEETING the Chairman reported that he had presented the Legion cup to a male pupil at Portesham School "for outstanding endeavour." A contribution of £50 was also made from the Chairman's Fund to provide prizes to other pupils who had made great progress during the past school year.

The branch welcomed KEN CITROEN (Portesham) as a new Member of the Branch - membership now stands at 94.

COL. HOWARD FAIRMAN, who has been the Dorset County Manager for the last twelve years has resigned - the Chairman is writing to him to express our appreciation for all that he has done, not only for the Branch in leading its welfare work, but especially on behalf of those in our community who have been recipients of RBL assistance.

The 6-DAY TOUR OF KENT (organised by Des & Jean Baker) goes ahead on 23rd September. There are still one or two seats left, but you will need to hurry if you would like to fill them!! (In aid of RBL Poppy Appeal)

BRIDE VALLEY GARDENING CLUB

Martin Young of Nectar Plants Garden Nursery in Upwey, gave us an informative and amusing talk on these topics.

There has been a break in the meetings in August and with September now on us we will be having a talk on Monday 16th at Puncknowle & Swyre Village Hall from Diana Guy looking forward to the GARDEN IN WINTER. Don't forget that we are always pleased to welcome any visitors at our talks.

For Marilyn, Colin is a welcome antidote and he offers her everything she craves when, together, they escape the film set to get closer in an idyllic Britain.

ST JAMES THE LEAST OF ALL

On how to save electricity in church

*The Rectory
St. James the Least*

My dear Nephew Darren

Your church certainly seems to have taken to the idea of green electricity with a vengeance. To have covered the whole of your roof with solar panels was a brave move, and makes quite a sight - especially when the sun catches them, dazzling motorists on the by-pass and causing multiple pile-ups. I pity the local pigeons, who try to land on it and then do a gentle glissade into the gutters.

I know there have been objections to your proposal to erect a wind turbine in your car park - although no one could claim that it spoils the aesthetic appearance of your church. Nothing, my dear Darren, could do that.

May I humbly offer you some further suggestions for reducing your electricity consumption. If you cut your sermons by half, then everyone could go home 20 minutes earlier. Similarly, if you only sang each chorus once instead of your customary 17 times, that should cut your service times in half. And why have lighting so good that everyone can see everyone else? That is the last thing our own congregation ever want to do.

I raised the issue at our last church council meeting, but having only recently gone on to electricity, there seemed little enthusiasm for yet more change. Major Hastings still fondly remembers our old acetylene plant in the churchyard, destroyed during one Mattins when the verger was unaware of the gas leak and lit up a cigarette. We still occasionally find pieces of his cassock when mowing the grass.

Mr Prentice, with a slightly malicious gleam, suggested building a treadmill, to be worked by the Young Farmers - which would also keep them out of the pub while Evensong was taking place. I couldn't help feeling that our Ladies Group would have far more determination to keep the thing rotating - probably providing enough energy to light the entire County. I was tempted to suggest we invite the vicar from our adjoining parish, St. Agatha's, to preach every Sunday, as that would fill our church with more than enough hot air.

I finally stopped all further discussion on the subject when a solar panel consultant arrived at the Rectory and began his sales pitch with the phrase: "I've come to convert you".

*Your loving uncle,
Eustace*

CHURCH

When someone says the word 'church' to you, what do you think of? A quiet building made of stone? A busy place with lots of happy people? Somewhere surrounded by gravestones or busy roads?

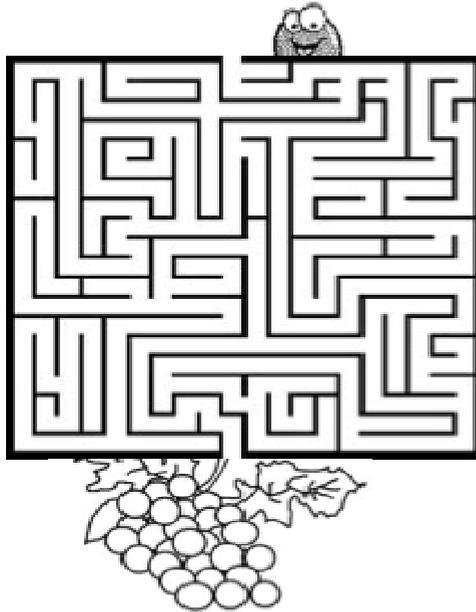

The Greek word for the church – ecclesia – comes from a word that means 'called out'. In other words, a church is a group of people called by God. The church is not a bunch of stones or bricks, it is a bunch of us!

We are all called out to be a part of the Body of Christ and all of us have a job to do. We may not understand what that job is now but we will in time and with help.

In the New Testament, in I Corinthians, chapter 12 and again in Ephesians, chapter 4, verse 11, these types of calling or ministry are listed. We may be teachers or healers, prophets or administrators, but whatever role God calls us out to do we are not alone, because God is with us, giving us the strength and the tools to do the job.

JOIN THE BUNCH

Poor little lost grape – can you help it find its way through this maze to join up with the bunch?

What did the green grape say to the purple grape?

"You need to breathe"

A man decided to start a chicken farm and brought 24 to get started. A week later he bought another 24 and another 24 the week after that.

When his friend asked how the farm was coming along the man replied, "Not one of them has grown yet. I wonder if I'm planting them too deep?"
